

Other Awards

Ernest Adlington Scholarship

£70 per annum for each of three years, restricted to pupils of King Edward VII School, Sheffield. Offered triennially; tenable in the Faculty of Engineering.

The Harry Armytage Memorial Awards

The Awards are provided by a fund established in 1999 in memory of Walter Harry Green Armytage, Lecturer and Professor of Education in the University of Sheffield from 1946 to 1980, following donations by his son, John Armytage, his family, friends and former colleagues. The Awards are intended to foster and support research in the areas of his two major academic interests: the History of Education and Comparative Education.

1. Frequency of awards: One or more annually.
2. Value of awards: Up to a maximum of £1,000.
3. Eligible candidates: Postgraduate students in the School of Education reading for a Master's degree or a Doctorate; members of staff (including short-contract staff) researching within the designated areas.
4. Assessors: A committee of three members of the School of Education appointed by the Faculty of Social Sciences on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Education.
5. Criteria for assessment: The merit of the proposal.
6. Special conditions: Application should be made to the Head of the School of Education, together with an estimate of costs, by the stated deadline, to be determined by the committee and approved by the School. Recipients will be required, on completion of their project, to submit to the Faculty a full report of the use made of the Award.

The William Carr Studentship

1. Studentships will be awarded by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities on the recommendation of the Department of History.
2. Studentships will be open to all postgraduate students in the Department of History wishing to carry out research into some aspect of the German speaking countries.
3. The number, duration and value of the Studentships will be determined by the Head of the Department of History on the basis of the funds available, the merit of the candidates and their proposed scope of research.
4. Applications for the Studentship, indicating the proposed scope of research and the use to which the Studentship will be put, should be submitted to the Head of the Department of History by 31 January each year.
5. Candidates will be required, on completion of their project, to submit to the Head of the Department of History a report of the use made on the award.

Sir Henry Coward Organ Scholarship

£600 for one year, renewable for up to total of three years, to a music student who will have the use of the University's two-manual Hill Norman and Beard organ and the Cathedral's three-manual (four department) Noel Mander organ, and be expected to undertake specified duties from time to time.

Crewe History Exhibitions

1. Exhibitions for research in English History will be awarded by the Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities.
2. Exhibitions are open to: (a) Graduates of the University of Sheffield. (b) Registered postgraduate students in the University of Sheffield. Preference may be given to students currently registered for research degrees.
3. The number and value of Exhibitions in any one session will depend on the funds available and on the merits of the candidates presenting themselves. These merits will be assessed by the Professors in the Department of History (in consultation with the supervisors of the candidates who are registered postgraduate students) on the basis of the candidates' abilities and their proposals for research.
4. Applications for Exhibitions must be made to the Head of the Department of History not later than 31 March in any session. A written statement of the project for which the funds are required must accompany the application. Applicants who are not currently registered in the Department must, wherever possible, give the name of one referee acquainted with the proposed subject.
5. Preference may be given to those proposing to engage in research on the history of Yorkshire.

EMGAS Scholarship

£360 per annum, plus fees and maintenance allowance, available to a candidate wishing to read for a Degree in Chemical Process Engineering in the Department of Chemical and Process Engineering. Particulars from the Education and Training Officer, East Midlands Gas Board, De Montfort Street, Leicester.

Fulwood Educational Endowment Free Scholarships and Studentships

One Day Free Studentship annually to the Engineering Departments of the University, entitling the holder to attend the full course of instruction for one year in one of these departments without payment of fees. Restricted to bona fide residents of the old Township of Upper Hallam.

Dr Maisie Glass Bursary

In 1991, the late Dr Maisie Glass made a bequest to the University and in consultation with her husband, Dr Harry Glass, and her sister Mrs Edna Hallé, an Associate Chair was established to commemorate Maisie's longstanding commitment to theatre in Sheffield which was used to support the appointment of a renowned figure in the profession of theatre and drama. The bequest was transferred to provide support for a student of drama in 2002.

1. Frequency of award: One annually, as funds permit.
2. Value of award: £2000.
3. Eligible candidates: Postgraduate students taking programmes of study or research in drama in the Department of English Literature.

4. Assessors: The Head of the Department of English Literature, who will nominate a second assessor.
5. Criteria for assessment: The merit of the candidate.

Hillsborough Memorial Travel Bursary (not currently available)

This bursary was founded in memory of Tracey Cox, Richard Jones and Joseph McCarthy who died at the Hillsborough Football Ground on 15 April 1989.

1. Frequency of award: Once every two or three years at the discretion of the Trustees.
2. Value of award: At the discretion of the Trustees, but not less than £200.
3. Eligible candidates: Students in any Faculty of the University.
4. Assessors: The Trustees of the University's Hillsborough Appeal Fund.
5. Criteria for assessment: To support travelling expenses for a student embarked on an unusual, noteworthy or prestigious enterprise or endeavour.
6. Special conditions: The Trustees shall ensure that in any year in which it is decided to award the Bursary, it shall be advertised widely in the University.

Hillsborough Trustees Special Needs Bursaries

These bursaries were founded by the Hillsborough Disaster Appeal Trustees.

1. Frequency of award: Annually.
2. Value of bursaries: At the discretion of the Assessors.
3. Eligible candidates: The Bursaries are intended to help students who have a disability or other special needs, which may mean that they are disadvantaged.
4. Assessors: A panel chaired by the University Disability Officer.
5. Special conditions: Applications for the Bursaries should be accompanied by a statement outlining the particular need together with the associated costs involved. Applications should be submitted to the Registrar and Secretary not later than 30 April.

Ruston Hornsby

Value and period of tenure dependent on the University course selected and approved by Ruston Gas Turbines Ltd. Restricted to employees of the company nominated by it.

Robert Kiln Bursary for Landscape Archaeology

This bursary was founded in memory of Robert Kiln, Honorary Graduate of the University, and sponsor of the Robert Kiln Laboratory for Landscape and Aerial Archaeology.

1. Frequency of award: One annually.
2. Value of bursary: £500 subject to biennial review by the Assessors.
3. Eligible candidates: Students registered for the MA course in Landscape Archaeology who do not hold a full scholarship from any other source.

4. Assessors: The Departmental Awards Panel.
5. Criteria for assessment: Evidence of the candidate's commitment to, and promise in, the study of landscape archaeology.

Ethel Middleton Scholarship

This scholarship was founded under the Will of Mr Elias Middleton in commemoration of his daughter's connection with the Sheffield Secondary School for Girls, Sheffield, (now High Storrs School) as an Assistant Mistress.

At least two scholarships of £1,000 each, subject to the total value of the scholarships not exceeding the annual income from the endowment, are awarded annually to the best pupils of High Storrs School, Sheffield, who take up a place on a degree programme at the University of Sheffield.

Geoffrey Ost Memorial Fund

A memorial fund has been raised to commemorate the services to the theatre, in Sheffield and elsewhere, of Geoffrey Ost, Honorary Graduate and Director of the Sheffield Playhouse from 1938 to 1964. The purpose of the Fund is to seek to perpetuate something of the high standards and integrity which characterised all his work in the theatre.

1. The Award shall be called the Geoffrey Ost Award.
2. The Award will be made annually by the Senate, on the recommendation of a Committee consisting of the signatories to the Geoffrey Ost Appeal Fund and a Senate representative, to postgraduate students (or their equivalent) at Drama Schools or University Drama Departments, or at similar institutions offering professional training for the theatre. The Senate after consultation with the Committee may appoint new members to the Committee if any of the existing members should cease to act.
3. Applications will be considered from students of any branch of work in the theatre who wish to enlarge their experience of the theatre but, other things being equal, preference will be given to those from the Metropolitan County of South Yorkshire, from North Derbyshire and North Nottinghamshire.
4. Applications must include an explanation of how the applicant would wish to use an Award, evidence of suitability and the names of two referees.
5. In making a recommendation the Committee will pay particular attention to the potential ability of candidates to make a significant contribution to the theatre. The Committee may recommend that the Award be divided or that the prize be withheld if no candidate is deemed to be of sufficient merit. The total annual value of the Award is not to exceed the income from the original investment.
6. The Senate on the recommendation of the Committee will lay down the conditions of each Award made.
7. Successful candidates will be required to submit a report on their use of the Award.

The Roberts Prize

This award was established in 2001 through the generosity of Professor Sir Gareth Roberts, Vice-Chancellor from 1990-2000. The prize is awarded each year to an honorary graduand or honorary graduate selected by the University Executive Board in recognition of the honorary graduand's skills in developing strategic vision, in leadership, in building partnerships and in communication. In accordance with the terms of the gift, the winner will be invited to deliver a public lecture on a subject of his or her choice. A dinner for invited guests from the City of Sheffield and its region and from the University will be associated with the lecture.

Scurfield Memorial Bursary

This bursary was established in 1997 through the generosity of the Scurfield family, to enable postgraduate students to undertake a period of research abroad. The award is to be used to assist with the expenses of a travel and research programme.

1. Frequency of award: One annually.
2. Value of bursary: £300.
3. Eligible candidates: Postgraduate students who are registered in the Faculty of Science and who are undertaking research in the fields of Botany, Ecology or Environmental Science.
4. Assessor: The Head of the Department of Animal and Plant Sciences.
5. Criteria for assessment: The merit of the proposed travel and research programme.

Robert Styring Scholarship

The Scholarship of £50 per annum for each of not more than four years is restricted to pupils of King Edward VII School, Sheffield and is tenable in the Faculties of Science or Engineering.

Amy Sunderland Travel Fund

1. Frequency of awards: Twice-yearly within the annual income from the endowment.
2. Value of awards: Up to a maximum of £1,000 per recipient per year.
3. Eligible candidates: Members of the academic, academic related, administrative and research contract staff in the School of Education and nominated academic visitors to the School of Education from abroad.
4. Assessors: A committee comprising three members of the School of Education appointed by the Faculty of Social Sciences.
5. Criteria for assessment: The merit of the proposal.
6. Special conditions: Application should be made to the Head of the School of Education, together with a statement of the proposal, by no later than 31 March or 30 September.

Elizabeth M de Velling Prize

This prize is provided from a bequest made by Miss Elizabeth M de Velling, graduate of the University of Sheffield and teacher at Kingston High School, Hull.

1. Frequency of award: One annually.
2. Value of prize: £100, made up of a prize of £25 in books relating to modern languages and a bursary of £75 to be used either for the support of a student wishing to attend an undergraduate programme of study in a modern language at the University of Sheffield or as a travel bursary.

3. Eligible candidates: Pupils at Kingston High School, Hull.
4. Assessors: The Headmaster of Kingston High School, Hull, and the Faculty Pro-Vice Chancellor for Arts and Humanities.
5. Criteria for assessment: Ability in modern languages.
6. Special conditions: The Prize of £25 is to be awarded to the best student of languages in the final year at Kingston High School, Hull, nominated by the Headmaster and agreed by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities. If the pupil winning the above prize then enters an undergraduate programme of study involving a modern language at the University of Sheffield he will also receive the bursary of £75. If the pupil does not intend to do so the money may be used, at the discretion of the Headmaster, for travel bursaries for pupils of Kingston High School.

Petrie Watson Exhibitions

The object of the Exhibitions, founded under the Will of Mr Arnold Petrie Watson, is to promote studies of an Arts nature.

1. Exhibitions will be awarded by the Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities.
2. Exhibitions are open to full-time undergraduates of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities and are available to provide the opportunity of carrying out an approved programme of travel and study, either in this country or abroad, including attendance at approved vacation courses, summer schools or conferences.
3. Exhibitions are also open to students registered as full-time or part-time candidates for a higher degree in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities to assist them in research for the degree.
4. The number of Exhibitions in any one session will depend on the funds available and on the merits of the candidates presenting themselves. These merits will be assessed by the Awards and Funds Committee on the basis of (a) the candidate's record as attested by the Head of the Department concerned, and (b) the intrinsic value of the project as submitted by the candidate in a written statement.
5. Candidates will be required, on completion of their project, to submit to the Committee a full report of the use made of the award.

Douglas Watts Memorial Prize

This prize was founded in 1982 as a result of a donation by Mrs M Watts as a memorial to Douglas Watts, former Assistant Accountant in the Department of Finance.

1. Frequency of award: One annually.
2. Value of prize: £10 in books selected by the prizewinner.
3. Eligible candidates: Staff aged under 21 years at 31 July in any academic year falling within one of the following groups: (a) Clerical staff in Clerical Grade I; (b) Trainee technicians; (c) Manual and Ancillary staff.
4. Assessors: A Pro-Vice-Chancellor and the Director of Human Resource Management.
5. Criteria for assessment: Exceptional performance on day release or similar method of study, and/or exceptional performance in carrying out duties at work, as determined by the Assessors.

Margaret Enid Wilson and William Frederick Wilson Memorial Fund

This fund was established in 2002 by the Department of Mechanical Engineering from part of a generous bequest to the Department by Margaret Enid Wilson. Her brother, William Frederick Wilson, was a graduate of the University and died at the young age of thirty-six years.

1. Frequency of award: One or more annually.
2. Value of award: Total value not to exceed the annual income from the endowment.
3. Eligible candidates: Students registered for the award of a taught degree in the Department of Mechanical Engineering. Students, or groups of students, may bid for a proportion of the fund on an annual basis, by submission of a proposal.
4. Assessors: A panel of at least three members of the academic staff of the Department of Mechanical Engineering, which shall include the Head of Department.
5. Criteria for assessment: The merit of the proposal.
6. Special conditions: Monies provided under the terms of the Fund can only be used by students, or groups of students, of the Department of Mechanical Engineering to fund extra-curricular activities. Such activities must be shown to benefit the education of the students. Recipients will be required to submit to the panel a report, the nature of which will be specified by the Panel, on the use made of the Award and the educational benefit gained.

Proposals will be considered annually by the panel at the end of the Autumn Semester. The panel may, in exceptional circumstances, consider proposals which are received at other times of the year, where it considers that the proposal is of outstanding benefit to the education of the students.